

Susan Siedentop is the Correctional Administrator for Sex Offender Services with the Tennessee Department of Correction. She is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and is the Chairman of the TN Sex Offender Treatment Board. She is on the Board of Governors for the American Correctional Association and is the Secretary of the ACA Ad Hoc Probation and Parole Committee. She has worked in the field for over two and half decades specializing in re-entry and management of highly visible populations. Susan has a passion for educating others on the risk of sexual re-offense in the community to prevent future victims. She works daily with other industry leaders to develop programs, services, training, and legislation to further the effort of preventing sexual re-offense.